SUNNY WINS THE HANDICAP.

Sunny, the cast off from the Hankins & Johnson stable is the hero of Lakeside at present. He captured the Decoration Day Handicap yesterday defeating that good and honest horse Redskin in a hard fought contest. Sunny may be termed an amphibious horse, as he has proved that he can run equally well on a dry track and in mud of various consistency. Last Wednesday with 75 pounds up, he covered a mile and a quarter in 2:07¼, beating Jack the Jew by ten lengths. Yesterday with 80 pounds Sunny raced with Redskin, who was carrying 120 pounds, and beat him a length in 2:15¼. It was a good performance for the three-year-old, who by the way is not three till July 8, but it was undoubtedly Redskin's best race, as he was carrying 40 pounds more and giving away 20 pounds. Little Hothersall rode the winner with excellent judgment and L. Soden handled Redskin better than he has ever done before.

Though J. Stepe is the owner of Sunny, he does not reap the benefit of the win, as the colt was given him by B. J. Johnson on the condition that the Hankins & Johnson stable should take the two first wins, consequently they took the purse on Wednesday, which was $300, and the money yesterday, which amounted to $1,100. After his first win B. J. Johnson said he was not sorry he got rid of the colt, as he did not believe he was much good, but yesterday he changed his mind, and remarked he would give $1,500 to get him back. Though both Terra Cotta and Folsom are credited with being his sire, there is no doubt but that he is by Terra Cotta. He is as sound as a bell, and will in all probability develop into a good long distance animal.

It was not a pleasant Decoration Day, as the weather was threatening from early morning, but in spite of this fully 8,000 persons were at Lakeside. The stand was filled to overflowing, and during the brief intervals of sunshine, the prevailing fashion of floral decorations for woman's head gear, made it look like a flower garden. Backers and bookmakers broke almost even, as though only two actual favorites won, the other winners, with the exception of Ashland, were well played.

The principal event was The Decoration Day Handicap, one mile and a quarter. Eleven were colored on the card, but Pat Malloy Jr. and Schiller declined the issue. Redskin, though he had the top weights, opened favorite, but public money forced Sunny to first choice, while Sullross' known liking for the mud, made him second choice.

After four breakaways Longdale was off in front to a good start with Merry Monarch second and Redskin third, Sunny getting away sixth. Little Hothersall at once sent Sunny to the front and at the quarter he was a neck in front of Redskin. Soden was determined not to let the light weight get away from him and he sent Redskin along on the back stretch, leading at the half by a neck with Sunny eight lengths in front of Merry Monarch. There was nothing in it now but the two leaders. Little Hothersall tried to get away, and the three-year-old had his neck stretched to keep on even terms with the old horse. In the stretch the weight began to tell, and the three-year-old had the best of it the whole way home, winning by a bare length, with Elusive third ten lengths back, and the others strung out.

In the opening race Meddler had it all his own way and won in a gallop, while Freddie L. T. showed his liking for the mud by running second.

Easter Eve with T. Burns up made all the running in the two-year-old race and won easily by five lengths, with Vanessa an easy second.

Ramona, a daughter of Sir Dixon's showed her liking for the mud by winning the third race handily. She was well played, the talent remembering her second to Bob Lee in similar going a few days ago. Dominico with D. Davis up ran a very different race than when he last appeared, and finished second.

Ashland is at home in the mud, won the mile race at long odds and John Brenock scored his second win of the day with Weola.

A match has been arranged for Monday between Big Strive, 110 and Waterman, 104, at one mile for $500 a side.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John Billings, the steeplechase jockey, died in Bellevue Hospital, New York, last week.

Simms is to ride Handspring in the Brooklyn and Hill is engaged to pilot St. Maxim in the same race.

Harry Shannon who cost Will Wallace $100, has won his last three races and four out of his last seven.

George V. Hankins recently made T. P. Hayes a liberal offer for his good colt Rondo. It was declined. The son of Pirate of Penzance and Song is not for sale.

Brown Dick is evidently "stuck" on the produce of Cinderella, as he paid $4000 for a brown colt named Plauditt by Himyar, out of the dam of Ferrier and Handsome.
